

Standing Letter of Indemnity

Issued in respect of the “Maersk Electronic Document Printing Facility Terms and Conditions, (“Remote Printing Agreement”)” DD of MM, YYYY

To Maersk A/S. Hereinafter referred to as “Maersk” or “You/you”.

In consideration of you making available at my/our request electronic data to print 1 set original bills of lading for all goods carried or to be carried pursuant to Maersk issued original bills of lading, then, due to the fact that I/we have not been able to print, once or more times, the respective full set of original bills of lading from the electronic data which you previously supplied, I/we hereby agree and undertake to indemnify you and each of you from all consequences of so doing, and I/we undertake to hold you and each of you harmless and indemnified against any claims, liabilities, losses, costs, charges, fines, damages and expenses (including any kind of legal expense) arising from or in consequence of your doing so.

1. In this connection I/we especially undertake to hold you and each of you harmless and indemnified against any loss on account of differences in rates of exchange or depreciation or currency and/or depreciation of value and/or loss caused by currency restrictions or exchange restrictions issued by any authority. Furthermore, I/we confirm that I/we have already destroyed any material/document which has been printed as a result of previous unsuccessful attempts to print the bill(s) of lading to which the electronic data relates.
2. In the event of any proceedings being commenced against you or any of your servants or agents in connection with the provision of electronic data and / or printing of bills of lading as aforesaid to provide you or them from time to time with sufficient funds to defend the same.

3. If the vessel or any other vessel or property belonging to you should be arrested or detained, or if the arrest or detention thereof is threatened, in connection with the provision of electronic data and / or printing of bills of lading as aforesaid to provide you or them with sufficient funds to defend the same.

4. The liability of each and every person under this indemnity shall be joint and several and shall not be conditional upon your proceeding first and against any person, whether or not such person is party to or liable under this indemnity.

5. This indemnity shall be construed in accordance with English law and each and every person liable under this Indemnity shall at your request submit to the jurisdiction of the High Court of Justice of England.

6. Where this indemnity has been joined in and countersigned by a bank, the issuer and the bank shall be jointly and severally liable hereunder.
